

ATTORNEY ROLE

NEUFELD SCHECK & BRUSTIN, LLP

Neufeld Scheck & Brustin, LLP (NSB) (www.nsbcivilrights.com) is hiring 1-2 attorneys to join the firm's practice focused on police misconduct for a 6-to-12-month placement. NSB welcomes all interested candidates, including individuals looking to take a secondment/leave from their current position.

Responsibilities of the Role:

The Attorney will have an active role in all aspects of our practice from researching and drafting briefs and motions to substantively contributing to all aspects of discovery from document productions to depositions to daily case management. The Attorney will be an active member of their case teams, including helping to problem solve case related issues and having the opportunity to work directly with clients. The Attorney will work closely with NSB Partners, Associate, Staff Attorneys, Fellows, Paralegals, and Social Workers.

Qualifications for the Role:

- 3 or more years of federal civil litigation experience, including with all stages of civil litigation.
- Exceptional organizational/project management experience.
- Ability to work independently and with a team.
- Strong analytical and writing skills.
- Be a member of the NY bar.

Compensation & Benefits:

The base salary for this role will be commensurate with litigation experience. The annual salary scale starts $95,000 (gross) for at least 3 years of experience and ends at $200,000 (gross) for 10 years or more, which will be prorated for an Attorney working less than a year in the role. NSB offers a wide range of benefits for this temporary role including comprehensive medical and dental coverage, a wellness benefit for physical & nutritional health, paid holidays and sick time, and a charitable contribution match.

About NSB:

NSB is a boutique national civil rights law firm based in New York City. Founded over 20 years ago by Peter Neufeld, Barry Scheck and the late Johnnie L. Cochran, Jr., NSB currently is lead counsel in approximately 30 complex individual and multi-plaintiff Section 1983 cases throughout the country. Our constitutional civil rights cases target police misconduct and other types of corruption within the criminal legal system—most commonly, wrongful convictions, excessive force, and abuse of prisoners. Our mission is to use civil litigation to win justice for our clients and hold individuals and institutions accountable.

NSB is committed to serving its diverse clients and ensuring an office environment that is welcoming and respectful to people of all backgrounds. We strongly encourage applicants from all cultures, races, educational backgrounds, life experiences, socio-economic classes, sexual orientations, age, gender, and physical abilities to apply. We welcome applicants with personal or family experience with the criminal justice system and/or incarceration. As an equal opportunity employer, NSB supports non-discrimination in the firm's employment practices. We are seeking applications from all candidates committed to holding officials accountable for their misconduct.

How To Apply:

To apply, send a resume and list of references to careers@nsbcivilrights.com. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis until the roles are filled. NSB is looking for candidates who can begin as soon as feasible.
